

'Lord I Call' - Venerable Thomas of Mount Maleum

July 7

Reader (6): If Thou, O Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with Thee.

Tone 1

Obikhod

We have come to know thee, O Fa - ther, as a divinely radiant bea - con, en - light - en - ing the world with spir - i - tual light, dispelling the darkness of the evil tu - mult of de - mons.
Therefore we celebrate thy brilliant memory with faith, O bless - ed one.

'Lord I Call' - Venerable Thomas of Mount Maleum

July 7

Reader (5): For Thy name's sake I have waited for Thee, O Lord, my soul has waited for Thy word; my soul has hoped on the Lord.

Tone 1

Obikhod

Thou wast re-splen-dent in thy former life, O Fa-ther Thom-as,

with riches and pow-er. Thou didst clothe thyself in the monastic habit, O ven-'ra-ble one, emulating the poverty of Him Who became in-car-nate for our sake.

Therefore He made thee rich with many spir-i-tual gifts.

'Lord I Call' - Venerable Thomas of Mount Maleum

July 7

Reader (4): From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch, let Israel hope on the Lord!

Tone 1

Obikhod

God openly guided thee to salvation, O Fa - ther, with a pillar of fire leading thee to the calm har - bor

to the moun - tain of dis - pas - sion.

By thy prayer, thou didst cause wa - ter to spring forth, thou didst make the blind to see and the lame to walk.

'Lord I Call' - Venerable Acacius

July 7

Reader (3): For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is plenteous redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

Tone 4

Obikhod

Thou didst mortify the cravings of thy flesh by ab - sti - nence and didst enliven thy soul through fasting and the exercise of vir - tues.

There - fore, thou wast shown to be alive even af - ter thy re - pose, for death came only as a dream to thee as thou didst pass o - ver to God,

Who placed thy soul in His hands, O glo - ri - ous A - ca - ci - us.

'Lord I Call' - Venerable Acacius

July 7

Reader (2): Praise the Lord, all nations! Praise Him, all peoples!

Tone 4

Obikhod

Thou didst lull to sleep the stirrings of the passions, O A - ca - ci - us, by obedience, humility and all - night vig - i - lance in prayer. Thy knowl - edge of the divine Scriptures kept thy mind untroubled and thy heart pure.

Therefore, thou didst become a receptacle of the Holy Spir - it, shining with rays of miracles upon all the ends of the earth.

'Lord I Call' - Venerable Acacius

July 7

Reader (1): For His mercy is confirmed on us; and the truth of the Lord endures forever.

Tone 4

Obikhod

Thou didst utterly disdain all worldly at - tach - ments and didst become a vessel of pas - sion - less - ness.

By thy love of divine wisdom, O glo - ri - ous one, thou didst achieve to the ultimate Desire by thine ac - tive as - cent and didst behold with mystical vision the incomprehensible and divine beau - ty of the in - vis - i - ble God, O all - wise and bless - ed Fa - ther A - ca - ci - us.

Troparion - Venerable Acacius and Thomas

July 7

Tone 4

Obikhod

O God of our Fa - thers, always act with kind - ness towards us;

take not Thy mer - cy from us, but guide our lives in peace through the prayers of Saints Thomas and A - ca - ci - us.

Kontakion - Venerable Thomas of Mount Maleum

July 7

Tone 4

Obikhod

Inflamed with divine love, thou didst courageously show us a great vic - to - ry:

thou didst spurn the mortal king and all earth - ly beau - ty.

Thou didst complete thy worldly sojourn on Mount Ma - le - on,

from where thou didst go up to Heaven to the King of Kings.

Unceasingly pray for us all, O Thom - - as.

Kontakion - Venerable Acacius of Mount Sinai

July 7

Tone 2

Obikhod

For - sak - ing the world, thou didst follow Christ from child - hood.

Emulating His voluntary humility, thou didst cast down the prideful ty - rant.

All wise and ven - 'ra - ble A - ca - ci - us, un - ceas - ing - ly pray for us all!
