O all - praised one, having first subjected the royal purple of thy princely pow - er to Christ, and acknowledged Him as the true God and King of all, thou didst turn away from the false gods of thine an - ces - tors.
Therefore, Christ, the Savior of our souls, Who is glo - ri - fied in the saints, enriched thee with gifts of mir - a - cles, and, in place of corruptible things, granted thee things e - ter - nal.

The image shows a musical score for two staves, likely for a choir or organ. The top staff is in treble clef and the bottom staff is in bass clef. Both staves have a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are written below the staves. The melody is simple, with a few notes and rests. The lyrics are: "and, in place of corruptible things, granted thee things e - ter - nal." The word "e" is written below the first staff and "ter" is written below the second staff, indicating a long note or a phrase that spans across the staves. The word "nal." is written below the first staff. The music ends with a double bar line.
