

'Lord I Call' - Great Martyr Panteleimon

July 27

V. (6) If Thou, O Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with Thee.

Tone 4

Obikhod

Because of thy spiritual in-her-i-tance thou wast rightly named Pan-te-lei-mon.

By lov-ing-ly car-ing for the souls of all men and healing their bod-ies, thou wast shown to be worthy of the wealth of thy name.

By acquiring the reward of virtue and retribution of pi-e-ty, O mar-tyr, thou wast revealed as a crown-bearing and invincible warrior of Christ our God.

Implore Him to save and en-light-en our souls!

V. (5) For Thy Name's sake I wait for Thee, O Lord. My soul has waited for Thy word; my soul has hoped on the Lord.

V. (4) From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch, let Israel hope on the Lord!

Tone 4

Obikhod

Thou didst unceasingly draw the grace of divine heal - ing from the spiritual fountains of the Sav - ior, a - bun - dant - ly pour - ing them out upon those who came to thee, O bless - ed one. Illumine by thy di - vine grace those who in faith keep thy glorious, all - ho - ly and ra - di - ant feast!

Pray that grace be given to all who sing prais - es to thee!

V. (3) For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is plenteous redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

Tone 2

Obikhod

Thou didst freely dispense grace to men, O glorious martyr Pan-te-lei-mon.

Thou didst drive a-way evil spirits and grant sight to the blind by thine in-ter-ces-sion to Christ.

Implore the Physician, O ho-ly one, since truly thou art pleas-ing to Him, to grant lasting peace to the world and great mercy to those who love thee!

V. (2) Praise the Lord, all nations! Praise Him, all peoples!

Tone 2

V. (1) For His mercy is confirmed on us, and the truth of the Lord endures forever.

Obikhod

Desiring the faith of thy pious moth - er, reproving the impiety of thy fa - ther, thou wast con - firmed in the faith and baptized by Her - mo - la - us, glorious Panteleimon, martyr of the mer - ci - ful God.

O physician of the sick and dispeller of pas - sions, pray for deliverance from dan - gers for those who keep thy most hon - 'ra - ble mem - o - ry in faith!

Reader: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Tone 6

Obikhod

Today the honorable memorial of the Unmercenary has dawned on us, calling the faithful to a mys - ti - cal feast, leading the company of feast - lovers to a celebration of tri - umph;
for the wonderworking physician, Pan - te - lei - mon,
the great passion-bearer, now comes to us, healing the in-firm-i-ties of all,
and praying fervently to the Lord to save our souls.

Reader: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Tone 8

Obikhod

Lov-ing the piety of thy moth-er, and rejecting the godlessness of thy fa - ther, thou didst became a warrior, a true phy - si - cian of souls.

Thou didst in - struct thyself in the heal - ing arts.

Thou wast well skilled in matters of both soul and bo - dy:

a true physician and de - stroy - er of suf - fer - ings.

As thou didst ac-quire steadfastness in suffering and per-se-ver-ance in prayer,

O Panteleimon, martyr of Christ, pray fervently that our souls may be saved!

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves, a treble staff and a bass staff, both in G-clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody is written on the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The music is in a simple, homophonic style, typical of traditional hymnody.
