SEPTEMBER 8

The Nativity of our Most Holy Lady Theotokos and Ever-Virgin Mary

"Lord I Call..." Tone 6

V. (8)

Tone 6

Today God, Who rests upon the spiritual thrones,
has prepared for Himself a holy throne on earth.
He Who in wisdom established the heavens
has fashioned a living heaven in His love for mankind;
for, from a barren root He has made a life-bearing branch spring up for
us,
even His Mother.

O God of wonders and Hope of the hopeless,//

O Lord, glory to Thee!

V. (7)

This is the day of the Lord!

Rejoice, O peoples,

for, behold, the bridal chamber of the Light, the book of the Word of Life,

has come forth from the womb!

The gate that faces the East is born and awaits the entry of the Great Priest.

She alone admits Christ into the world//

for the salvation of our souls.

TONE 6

V. (6) & V. (5)

Although by God's will other barren women have brought forth famous offspring, yet, of all those children Mary shines most brightly, as is fitting to God.
For she herself was born wondrously of a barren mother, and gave birth in the flesh to the God of all,
in a manner surpassing nature, from a womb without seed.
She is the only gateway of the only-begotten Son of God,
Who passed through this gate yet kept it closed,
and, having ordered all things in His own wisdom,//
has wrought salvation for all mankind. x2

V. (4) & V. (3)

Today the gates of barrenness are opened,
and the virgin gate of God comes forth.
Today grace begins to bear its first fruit,
revealing to the world the Mother of God.
Through her things on earth are joined with the heavens//
for the salvation of our souls. x2

V. (2)

Today is the prelude of universal joy;
today the winds blow that herald salvation,
and the barrenness of our nature is dispelled;
for the barren woman is revealed as the mother of her who remained a virgin
after giving birth to the Creator.
From her the One Who is God by nature takes what is foreign to Him and makes it His own, and works salvation through the flesh for those who have gone astray.//
He is Christ, the Lover of man and the Redeemer of our souls.

TONE 6

V. (1)

Today barren Anna gives birth to the handmaid of God,
who was chosen from all generations to become the abode of the King and Creator of all, Christ our God in fulfillment of the divine plan.

Through her we earth-born have been fashioned anew//
and restored from corruption to life eternal.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Tone 6

Today God, Who rests upon the spiritual thrones,
has prepared for Himself a holy throne on earth.
He Who in wisdom established the heavens
has fashioned a living heaven in His love for mankind;
for, from a barren root He has made a life-bearing branch spring up for
us,
even His Mother.

O God of wonders and Hope of the hopeless,//
O Lord, glory to Thee!

Tone 1

The first fruit of our salvation is accomplished today, O peoples,
for behold, the Mother and Virgin and vessel of God,
foreordained from ancient generations,
comes to be born from a barren woman.

A flower from Jesse and a rod from his root has budded;
let Adam, our forefather, be glad; let Eve rejoice and delight,
for behold, she who was formed from Adam's rib plainly declares her daughter and descendant blessed:

"My deliverance has been born," says Eve;

"through her, I shall be freed from the bonds of Hades."

Let David rejoice, striking his lyre, and let him bless God, for behold, the Virgin comes forth from a barren rock//
for the salvation of our souls!

Tone 2

Come, all you friends of virginity,
and you lovers of purity,

come, and welcome with love the boast of virgins!

She is the fountain of life that flows from the solid rock;

she is the bush that springs from the barren ground// and burns with the immaterial fire that cleanses and enlightens our souls.

Tone 2

What is this sound of feasting we hear?

Joachim and Anna mystically celebrate, saying:

“Rejoice with us today, O Adam and Eve;

for if by your transgression you closed the gate of Paradise to those of old,

we have now been given a glorious fruit, //

Mary the child of God, who opens its entrance to all!”

She who was foreordained Queen of all

and the habitation of God,

has come forth today from the barren womb of joyful Anna.

She is the divine sanctuary of the eternal Essence;

shameless Hades has been trampled down through her,

and Eve with all her race is established secure in life.

It is meet and right that we should cry aloud to her: //

“Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the Fruit of thy womb!”

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Tone 8

Let us strike our spiritual harp on this solemn day of our feast, for today, from the seed of David,

the Mother of Life is born, dispelling the darkness.

She is the restoration of Adam, and the recalling of Eve.

She is the source of incorruption and our release from corruption.

Through her we have been made Godlike and delivered from death.

So let us the faithful cry out to her with Gabriel:

“Rejoice, O full of grace, the Lord is with thee, //

granting us His great mercy through thee!”

Aposticha

Tone 4

The joy of all the world has dawned for us from the righteous ones:
the all-praised Virgin who springs from Joachim and Anna.

Through the abundance of goodness she becomes the living temple of God,

and she alone is acknowledged as truly the Theotokos.

Through her prayers, O Christ God, //

send peace to the world and to our souls great mercy!

V. Hearken, O daughter, and see, and incline thine ear!

As foretold by the Angel's prophecy,

thou hast come forth today, O Virgin,

the most sacred fruit of righteous Joachim and Anna.

Thou art the heaven and throne of God, the vessel of purity, heralding joy to all the world, thou that bringest us our life;

thou dost destroy the curse and givest blessing in its stead.

Wherefore on this feast of thy birth, O Maiden called by God, // entreat peace for the world and for our souls great mercy!

V. Even the rich among the people shall pray before thy face.

Let the barren and childless Anna today clap her hands with gladness!
Let those on earth be decked in splendor;
let rulers leap for joy;
let priests be glad in blessing; let the whole world keep the feast!
For behold, the Queen and immaculate bride of the Father has sprung forth from the root of Jesse.
No longer will women bear children in sorrow,
for joy has blossomed forth,
and the Life of mankind now dwells in the world.
No longer are the offerings of Joachim turned away,
for the lamentation of Anna has been changed to joy.
She cries: "Rejoice with me, all you chosen of Israel, for behold, the Lord has given me the living palace of His divine glory for our common gladness and joy//
and for the salvation of our souls!"

*Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;
now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.*

Tone 8

Come, all you faithful, let us run to the Virgin!

For, behold, today she is born, who was foreordained before the womb,
as the Mother of our God,
the treasure of virginity, the rod of Aaron that budded, springing from the root of Jesse,
the preaching of the Prophets, the offspring of righteous Joachim and Anna.

She is born and with her the world is renewed.

She comes from the womb and the Church is adorned in her majesty.

She is the holy temple, the vessel of the Godhead,

the virgin instrument and bridal chamber of the King, in which has come to pass the strange mystery of the union of the natures that came together in Christ.//

Worshipping Him, we praise the birth of the all-pure Virgin.

The Praises

Tone 1

V. Praise Him for His mighty deeds; praise Him according to His exceeding greatness!

Tone 1

Oh, the marvelous wonder!

The source of Life is born of a barren woman,
and grace gloriously begins to bear its fruit.

Rejoice, Joachim, who have become the father of the Theotokos!

There is no other like thee among earthborn fathers, O man inspired by God;

for the Maiden in whom God would come to dwell,
the Tabernacle of God, the all-holy Mountain,//
has been given to us through thee. x2

Oh, the marvelous wonder!

The fruit of a barren woman has shone forth at the behest of the Almighty Maker of all and mightily destroyed the barrenness of this world, which was fruitless in good things.

You mothers, dance with the mother of the Theotokos and cry:

“Rejoice, O Full of Grace, the Lord is with thee,//

He Who grants the world through thee His great mercy!”

A living pillar of chastity

and bright vessel shining with grace, glorious Anna has given birth to the true stronghold of virginity,

the divine flower, who manifestly bestows the beauty of virginity on all virgins and women who desire that grace,// and grants to all the faithful great mercy.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.
